

The Unique Ability Exercise

Your unique ability is a mindset that honours your natural strengths, what's already within you and comes most naturally to you. It's you at your very best."

Principals and Managers are leaders within their practices. In order for them to be most effective, they must:

1. Eliminate tasks that are no longer necessary
2. Automate tasks to make more effective use of time
3. Delegate outside of their unique abilities by building and empowering the team around them.
